STAT

1. This memorandum contains, in paragraphs 4 and 5, recommendations for your approval.

2. It is now our best judgment, supported in part by reference (b), that we should proceed at an early date with the first of several preliminary tests outside of normal business hours leading subsequently to a full blackout test during normal business hours.

3. Paragraph 2 of reference (b) emphasizes a most important aspect of the need for these preliminary tests. Correct procedures, executed by fully trained and knowledgeable General Services Administration personnel are an absolute requirement to ensure proper and timely action in any planned outage or in the event of the real thing.

4. It is recommended that you approve the first of several preliminary tests to be conducted on Sunday, 23 January 1966. We propose that the test begin at 8 a.m. on that date and it is anticipated that it will continue for a period of at least two hours.
